

Bio

Renée was born in Nashville and raised in country music. She has toured for over 20 years as a soloist, and featured background vocalist for Faith Hill, Tim McGraw, Patty Loveless, Pam Tillis, Billy Dean, Jessica Andrews, and countless other artists in country, pop and gospel music.

A career highlight in 2000, was being featured on the CBS "Faith Hill Thanksgiving Special." When Faith asked Renée, "What does your family do for Thanksgiving?" she was able to share a very spiritual moment of how they express gratitude. That one event renewed a passion in Renée's soul for helping people experience a deeper relationship with God, family and friends.

Renée has seen many dreams come true in her lifetime, but God has shown her an even bigger plan. During a sold out show with Tim and Faith, at Madison Square Garden, on the "Soul 2 Soul" tour in 2000, God said, "This was as big as you could dream, but I can dream bigger." As Renée looked out at the audience of 25,000 fans, all she could think was, "I wonder if they are truly happy, if they know where their kids are, and do they know the Lord?" At that moment, Renée knew this would be her last tour in country music.

Renée's Testimony

Renée's story begins with the unconditional love of a retired preacher, who came into her life after the tragedy of losing her father in a car wreck. Loy Cook not only loved her to the Lord in 1986, but mentored her for 13 years up until the day he died. God used Loy to help fill the void of losing her earthly father and showed her the love of her heavenly father like she had never known. Renée wrote a song for Loy called "You've Been Jesus To Me" that he got to hear shortly before he passed away. Renée has dedicated the rest of her life to passing on this beloved gift of grace.

“Her warm heart and vibrant spirit will both encourage and challenge your people.”

—Bob Cook, Pastor, The Church at Grace Park

I was blessed, inspired, thrilled and ministered to last evening at your concert. Renée, when you walked down the aisle with your Bible in hand, I thought hmmm...this is different. When you used it to introduce your songs, I thought that was strength beyond measure. So many artists are indeed inspired and motivated by God to write great words, but never acknowledge the source of those words. Thank you many times over for anchoring your songs in the Word that this world so desperately needs to hear.

I can truly say, in all my years of ministry, that I have never been so blessed by a music ministry as I was by yours. Renée, you are a true professional and you project that to your audience, but the most powerful part of your ministry is your sincerity and humility for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. You were truly “Jesus To Us” at Radnor Baptist Church.

We will discuss the three Keys to “doing this life thing” successfully: Hope, Faith and Love... but the greatest of these is Love.

As Christians, we know that our one and only solution is Jesus. He is our Easy Button. We should run to Him for every need. Has your life become one, big, disorganized mess? Ever wanted to scream, “Stop the world, I want to get off!?” Wonder how some Christians keep it all together? Who’s your supplier? Go to the source for all of life’s messy problems.
